ABOUT ME

Skilled tech enthusiast with a passion for creativity and organization. Originally from Argentina and now based in Germany, I have been working since the age of 16, which has developed my problem-solving skills and independence. I am highly motivated to continually improve my abilities and seek an environment that encourages growth and development.

PROJECTS

Broken Office | Globant (2023)

- Designed and developed a mobile-first application for reporting issues and damaged elements in the offices or homes of workers to a service worker to handle it. Done in a professional context in a team of 6 using Agile methodologies with sprints of one week.
